Critical Raw Materials Facility

Building Resilient Supply Chains for Europe's Future

The CRM Facility, awarded by the European Commission to EIT RawMaterials and InnoEnergy, is Europe's proactive response to diversifying Europe's raw materials supplies and reducing dependencies.

Managed by EIT RawMaterials, the Facility strengthens global partnerships and advances international projects to build sustainable and resilient CRM value chains. Our joint team of experts from EIT RawMaterials and InnoEnergy works to:

Diversify Europe's CRM supplies by identifying and supporting high-potential projects in key regions.

Build resilient value chains by connecting European industries with international partners to develop mid-to-downstream value chains.

Drive sustainable growth through skills building in CRM management, operations, and sustainable practices.
